50. Memoriams

In loving memory of my husband and our daddy Thomas K. Moore.
Who left us one year ago, April 9, 1983.
God saw you getting weaken, so he did what He thought best
He came and stood beside you and whispered come to rest.
We could not understand it, no matter how we tried.
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.
You wished no one a last farewell, you were home before we knew it.
And God knows why.
Loved & remembered by His wife, Children and grandchildren

In loving memory of Jesse J. Taylor who left this life April 5, 1983.
Our hearts are still heavy from the loss of one who touched those who loved and know him. His friends and family, especially Jr. Ferguson, his best friend will never be the same because of his life and death. We hope you are at peace now Jesse.
If I could sit and talk to you for just a little while
To say the things I wish I'd said, like, how I loved your smile.
How much I loved the sight of you, your voice, your eyes, your face,
To watch you playing basketball and see you win a race.
You were so much a part of me, the part that's gone away.
These memories you left become more precious every day.
I pray that you can hear this and God will let you see
The pride, the joy, the happiness that your life gave to me.
Sadly missed by His family
50/4-11 11c

In loving memory of my daughter, Helen Varner, who passed away two years ago, April 16, 1982.
The peace of Jesus fills her breast,
And in his arms she sank to rest.
The world changes from year to year.
And friends from day to day.
But never will the one I love
From memory pass away.
Sadly missed by Mother
Mrs. Bessie Baldwin
